

September Students of the Month

HIGH

Taylor Adams

Taylor Adams is an industrious young man who has been raising the bar for him and his peers' learning. He holds everyone accountable for their work and behavior, asks questions that require critical thinking, and overall demonstrates qualities of a student leader. Taylor's insight and contributions to his classes help to foster a collaborative learning environment where everyone is challenged academically.

MIDDLE

Cameron Glass

Cameron Glass has exceptional work ethic. He goes above and beyond to include classmates in activities and assignments. He always has a positive disposition to everyone and contributes to a positive community in the classroom.

ELEMENTARY

Zoe Ruffin

Zoe Ruffin is a student that is full of smiles and laughter. She is a great helper in the class, and she is respectful to teachers and classmates. She is always eager to learn.
